Instructor Ryan Fox AWS, is an award winning watercolor artist who resides in Raleigh, NC. He is a Signature member of the American Watercolor Society as well as 6 state and regional societies. His paintings have been featured in Watercolor Artist Magazine, Art of Watercolour and Splash 15, 16, 19 and 20.

Learn a new painting technique using the batik method with watercolor!
Watercolor batik is the process of using traditional watercolor paint and wax to create beautiful and unique batik-style paintings on Japanese rice paper. Artists will create several 12"x16" batik paintings in this workshop. Irons, rice paper, electric skillets for melting wax, newspaper, wax and brushes for applying wax will be provided for you. Artists bring their normal watercolor painting supplies.
(A supply list will be provided).

Artists can use reference photos that are provided for their drawings or are welcome to bring their own images to be transferred to rice paper. Lunch, all 3 days, is on your own. You may bring your lunch or it can be ordered from a local restaurant and delivered to you at the workshop.

Class is limited to 10 students.
3 day workshop fee is $350
$100 deposit secures your place
